

Upon reading the article "Cellular fees raise customers 'ire" on CNN.com, I took notice. For years I have seen these charges and assumed that they were Federal or State mandated charges. Now I am in complete agreement with the NASUCA that this is a unfair billing practice. All the companies should be required to incorporate these fees into the service price and not add them on at a later time increasing the monthly statement.